11:15a Confession of Sins and Words of Forgiveness

Pastor: Since we are gathered to hear God's Word, call upon Him in prayer and praise, and receive the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ in the fellowship of this altar, let us first consider our unworthiness and His forgiving grace.

Paul urges us in today's Epistle "to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace."

People: But we are not worthy of the calling. We confess that at times we have refused to be humble or gentle. Our patience has been lacking. We have dealt with one another in anger. We have valued ourselves over the unity of the Spirit. In our fallen condition, we cannot free ourselves; so we can only call out to God, our heavenly Father, seeking His grace for the sake of Christ, and saying: God, be merciful to me, a sinner.

Pastor: Paul reminds us that there is one Lord, who has created you and all things; there is one faith in Christ, who by His death has paid for your sins and by His rising has opened the way to eternal life; and there is one Baptism, by which the Holy Spirit has brought You to faith in the one God and Father of us all, who is over all and through all and in all.

As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.
