Pastor: Hear the cry of Your people, O Lord!

People: Son of David, have mercy on us!

Pastor: In our sin and shame, we have ignored the needs of others around us and have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

People: Son of David, have mercy on us!

Pastor: In our own struggles against temptation and falling into sin, we know that we are by nature sinful and unclean and have wandered from Your will and Your ways.

People: Son of David, have mercy on us!

Pastor: Have mercy on us for the sake of Jesus, our great High Priest, and forgive us our sins. Renew in us a right spirit and restore to us the joy of Your salvation.

People: Son of David, have mercy on us!

Pastor: Jesus is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them. . . . We have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, has had mercy on you through the Son of David, giving His only begotten Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, our great High Priest, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Turned to altar for confession, turned toward congregation for forgiveness of sins.

God's Word

5:17:20p 11:17:20a New Testament Reading; Romans 3:10-12, 19-28

As the Scriptures say, "No one is righteous — not even one. No one is truly wise; no one is seeking God. All have turned away; all have become useless. No one does good, not a single one."...

...Obviously, the law applies to those to whom it was given, for its purpose is to keep people from having excuses, and to show that the entire world is guilty before God. For no one can ever be made right with God by doing what the law commands. The law simply shows us how sinful we are.

But now God has shown us a way to be made right with Him without keeping the requirements of the law, as was promised in the writings of Moses and the prophets long ago. We are made right with God by placing our faith in Jesus Christ. And this is true for everyone who believes, no matter who we are.

For everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God's glorious standard. Yet God, in His grace, freely makes us right in His sight. He did this through Christ Jesus when He freed us from the penalty for our sins. For God presented Jesus as the sacrifice for sin. People are made right with God when they believe that Jesus sacrificed His life, shedding His blood. This sacrifice shows that God was being fair when He held back and did not punish those who sinned in times past, for He was looking ahead and including them in what He would do in this present time. God did this to demonstrate His righteousness, for He Himself is fair and just, and He makes sinners right in His sight when they believe in Jesus.

Can we boast, then, that we have done anything to be accepted by God? No, because our acquittal is not based on obeying the law. It is based on faith. So we are made right with God through faith and not by obeying the law.

5:19:20p 11:19:20a Gospel Reading: John 3:16-17

For this is how God loved the world: He gave us one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life. God sent His Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through Him.
