5:06:30p 11:28:30a Confession of Sins and Words of Forgiveness

Pastor: Embraced by the love of God through our Baptism into Christ, we confess our sin before God and one another. Pastor: Embraced by the love of God through our Baptism into Christ, we confess our sin before God and one another.

A time of silence is observed.

Pastor: Captive to sin, we have sinned against You, God of love, in thought, word, and deed.

People: In Your great love for us in Christ, forgive our sins and renew our lives.

Pastor: We have shown lack of trust in Your loving purpose for our lives.

People: In Your great love for us in Christ, forgive our sins and renew our lives.

Pastor: We have failed to immerse ourselves in Your Word and to speak it freely in the world.

People: In Your great love for us in Christ, forgive our sins and renew our lives.

Pastor: We have failed to love You and to love one another, even using our faith as an excuse not to love our neighbors.

People: In Your great love for us in Christ, forgive our sins and renew our lives.

Pastor: We have been envious, boastful, arrogant, rude, insistent, irritable, and resentful.

People: In Your great love for us in Christ, forgive our sins and renew our lives.

Pastor: Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Turned to altar for confession, turned toward congregation for forgiveness of sins.

God's Word

5:17:20p 11:50:20a New Testament Reading: Romans 8:18-32

Yet what we suffer now is nothing compared to the glory He will reveal to us later. For all creation is waiting eagerly for that future day when God will reveal who His children really are.

Against its will, all creation was subjected to God's curse. But with eager hope, the creation looks forward to the day when it will join God's children in glorious freedom from death and decay.

For we know that all creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. And we believers also groan, even though we have the Holy Spirit within us as a foretaste of future glory, for we long for our bodies to be released from sin and suffering.

We, too, wait with eager hope for the day when God will give us our full rights as His adopted children, including the new bodies He has promised us. We were given this hope when we were saved. (If we already have something, we don't need to hope for it. But if we look forward to something we don't yet have, we must wait patiently and confidently.)

And the Holy Spirit helps us in our weakness. For example, we don't know what God wants us to pray for. But the Holy Spirit prays for us with groanings that cannot be expressed in words. And the Father who knows all hearts knows what the Spirit is saying, for the Spirit pleads for us believers in harmony with God's own will.

And we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them.

For God knew His people in advance, and he chose them to become like his Son, so that his Son would be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And having chosen them, He called them to come to Him. And having called them, He gave them right standing with Himself. And having given them right standing, He gave them His glory.

What shall we say about such wonderful things as these? If God is for us, who can ever be against us? Since He did not spare even His own Son but gave Him up for us all, won't He also give us everything else?

5:19:20p 11:52:20a Gospel Reading: John 9:1-7

As Jesus was walking along, He saw a man who had been blind from birth. "Rabbi," His disciples asked Him, "why was this man born blind? Was it because of his own sins or his parents' sins?"

"It was not because of his sins or his parents' sins," Jesus answered. "This happened so the power of God could be seen in him. We must quickly carry out the tasks assigned us by the one who sent us. The night is coming, and then no one can work. But while I am here in the world, I am the light of the world."

Then He spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud over the blind man's eyes. He told him, "Go wash yourself in the pool of Siloam" (Siloam means "sent"). So the man went and washed and came back seeing!
