(Admin. by Vineyard Music USA)

Verse 1

Your love is like a flame burning ever bright
Shining like the sun in the dead
of night

Verse 2

Your presence is the wind
blowing through my life Embers in my heart start to ignite

Misc 1

(Pre-Chorus)
So I can't stop singing

Chorus 1

There's a wild fire there's a wild
fire
In my soul
(REPEAT)

Can't contain it can't explain it
But this I know
This fire is wild and it cannot be controlled

Misc 2

(Bridge)
Your love Your love is the fire
Your love Your love it is wild
Your love Your love is the fire
A wild fire a wild fire

Invocation

Confession of Sins and Words of Forgiveness

Pastor: Loving God,

People: we confess our alienation from You both by nature and by choice. Help us to know and believe how much You love us. Let us abide in Your love even as You abide in us always. Heal us with forgiveness for Jesus' sake.

Pastor: Our dear Holy Trinity in mercy has given the Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. Therefore, as a called and ordained servant of Jesus, and by His authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ? Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Old Testament Reading: Job 42:7-17

Job 42:7-17 New Living Translation (NLT)

After the Lord had finished speaking to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite: "I am angry with you and your two friends, for you have not spoken accurately about me, as my servant Job has. So take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer on your behalf. I will not treat you as you deserve, for you have not spoken accurately about me, as my servant Job has." So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite did as the Lord commanded them, and the Lord accepted Job's prayer.

When Job prayed for his friends, the Lord restored his fortunes. In fact, the Lord gave him twice as much as before! Then all his brothers, sisters, and former friends came and feasted with him in his home. And they consoled him and comforted him because of all the trials the Lord had brought against him. And each of them brought him a gift of money and a gold ring.

So the Lord blessed Job in the second half of his life even more than in the beginning. For now he had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 teams of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. He also gave Job seven more sons and three more daughters. He named his first daughter Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. In all the land no women were as lovely as the daughters of Job. And their father put them into his will along with their brothers.

Job lived 140 years after that, living to see four generations of his children and grandchildren. Then he died, an old man who had lived a long, full life.

New Testament Reading: James 5:7-12

James 5:7-12 New Living Translation (NLT)

Dear brothers and sisters, be patient as you wait for the Lord's return. Consider the farmers who patiently wait for the rains in the fall and in the spring. They eagerly look for the valuable harvest to ripen. You, too, must be patient. Take courage, for the coming of the Lord is near.

Don't grumble about each other, brothers and sisters, or you will be judged. For look — the Judge is standing at the door!

For examples of patience in suffering, dear brothers and sisters, look at the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. We give great honor to those who endure under suffering. For instance, you know about Job, a man of great endurance. You can see how the Lord was kind to him at the end, for the Lord is full of tenderness and mercy.

But most of all, my brothers and sisters, never take an oath, by heaven or earth or anything else. Just say a simple yes or no, so that you will not sin and be condemned.

Gospel Reading: Luke 6:20-26, 35-39

Luke 6:20-26, 35-39 New Living Translation (NLT)

Then Jesus turned to His disciples and said,

"God blesses you who are poor, for the Kingdom of God is yours.
God blesses you who are hungry now, for you will be satisfied.
God blesses you who weep now, for in due time you will laugh.

What blessings await you when people hate you and exclude you and mock you and curse you as evil because you follow the Son of Man. When that happens, be happy! Yes, leap for joy! For a great reward awaits you in heaven. And remember, their ancestors treated the ancient prophets that same way."

"What sorrow awaits you who are rich, for you have your only happiness now.
What sorrow awaits you who are fat and prosperous now, for a time of awful hunger awaits you.
What sorrow awaits you who laugh now, for your laughing will turn to mourning and sorrow.
What sorrow awaits you who are praised by the crowds, for their ancestors also praised false prophets."

"Love your enemies! Do good to them. Lend to them without expecting to be repaid. Then your reward from heaven will be very great, and you will truly be acting as children of the Most High, for He is kind to those who are unthankful and wicked. You must be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate."

"Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn others, or it will all come back against you. Forgive others, and you will be forgiven. Give, and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full — pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap. The amount you give will determine the amount you get back."

Then Jesus gave the following illustration: "Can one blind person lead another? Won't they both fall into a ditch?"

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain

Verse 1

Who breaks the power of sin and darkness

who's love is mighty and so much stronger

The King of Glory, the King
above all Kings

worthy is the King who conquered the grave
(repeat 2x)

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, worthy, worthy, worthy

Verse 2

Who shakes the whole earth with holy thunder

and leaves us breathless in awe
and wonder

The King of Glory, the King
above all kings

Chorus

This is amazing grace, this is
unfailing love

That you would take my place,
that You would bear my cross

You laid down Your life, that I
would be set free

Whoa, Jesus I sing for all that
You've done for me

Chorus

This is amazing grace, this is
unfailing love

That you would take my place,
that You would bear my cross

You laid down Your life, that I
would be set free

Whoa, Jesus I sing for all that
You've done for me
